

JFK's Halloween "Spook"tacular

Deep in the woods is a frightening sound.
Bats and goblins are always creeping around.

The wolfs and witches are creating a brew .
That when blended together can create quite a stew.

The hauntings will happen right under nose.
Look out everybody what is touching your toes.

The vampire in the corner just turned into a bat.

You will be seeing this creature in a party hat.

On October 28, 2011 we will have a "spook"tacular party.

Don't even think about being tardy.
We know for a fact you are on the list.

The goblins wrote it themselves
As they were creating a ditch.

Mud and dirt won't matter to them,
As long as you bring a JFK friend.

It comes once a year and boy it is fun,
To see the ghosts and goblins all on the run.
Music and food we will be having a great time.

If you come late, you might stand in a line.

The time to arrive is 6:30 p.m.

All adult creatures will be checking you in.

Anthony Wayne Middle School is the haunted place.

vampires always have really good taste.

Snacks to eat and crafts to do this JFK "Spook" tacular is created just for
